THANK YOU FOR HELPING US MEET THE CHALLENGE!

In the summer of 2005, Writers' Theatre was given a $200,000 Challenge Grant by our generous donors, David & Mary Winton Green. The Greens, in their understanding of the enormous support it takes to produce the high-caliber theatre for which Writers' Theatre is known, pledged to match all new or increased donations raised from individuals during the 2005/06 Season.

We are thrilled that we have met that goal, thanks to the generous support of over 550 households! To all the donors whose belief in the work on our stage inspired them to make a gift to help us meet our Challenge Grant Goal, we would like to express our deepest gratitude.
